As a candidate for the PMI Scheduling Professional (PMI-SP), you know there is much more to project scheduling than just the use of tools & technology to build a schedule for your team.

Schedules are a fundamental element of project management yet half of all projects — 50 percent — are not completed within the initially scheduled timeframe according to 2015 Pulse of the Profession® report.

Projects and teams today are increasingly global and virtual, and project schedules are key to managing activities, resources, dependencies and ultimately, project outcomes. The PMI-SP will recognize your knowledge and skill to drive the improved management of project schedules.

Who Should Apply?

If you have advanced knowledge and experience developing, managing and maintaining project schedules and you'd like to showcase your skills, then the PMI-SP is an excellent choice for you.

Prerequisites

- Secondary degree
- 40 months of project scheduling experience within the last 5 years
- 40 hours of project scheduling education OR
- Four-year degree
- 28 months of project scheduling experience within the last 5 years
- 30 hours of project scheduling education

Gain and Maintain Your PMI-SP

- The certification exam has 170 multiple-choice questions and you have 3.5 hours to complete it.
- To maintain your PMI-SP, you must earn 30 professional development units (PDUs) every three years in the specialized topic of project scheduling.

Learning outcomes:

Scheduling Planning, Developing, Monitoring & Controlling and Closing. Stakeholder Communication Management. To effectively and efficiently handle projects. To help participants prepare effective and efficient Schedule Management Plan.
